MESSAGE from PBC Director

Kiana Rowley & Introducing Morea Mendoza

In 2023, Pacific Birth Collective marked its 8th year of reproductive education, support, and advocacy for families in Maui and across Hawai'i. As a grassroots organization founded and run by local mothers, we have a direct connection to the root issues facing our community. With this solid foundation and a service-minded approach, we have been able to mobilize 500 volunteers serving over 3000 families in 2023, greatly expanding in the wake of the devastating fires of August 8. When our community had nowhere to turn, we turned to each other and in the midst, much like in birth, we discovered a capacity for resilience that we did not know we had. The thanks are too many to count. A special shout out to our courageous Board of Directors who guide PBC with integrity, determination, and a willingness to show up for hard conversations. To our growing staff, for your commitment to service and for holding a place of refuge, pu'uhonua, for everyone who walks through our doors. To our mentors and community partners, too many to list. As a cofounder of Pacific Birth Collective, I have been honored to be a part of the foundation of this organization.

Kiana Rowley, interim PBC Director

As ho'okele, Interim Director of Leadership and Operations, over the past 6 months I have been in the back of this wa'a paddling with a PBC team of wāhine working hard, leaning into each other's strengths, and developing strategies and systems for a long voyage ahead. I can testify that this is a solid and balanced organization committed to listening and adapting to the needs of our community and leading from the back. I have every faith in our collective abilities to navigate the waters ahead with resilience and honor the unique needs of every family for self-determination and support as they do the hard work of carrying, birthing, and raising the next generation during these challenging times.

On that resounding note, I am proud to introduce Morea Mendoza, our next Director of Leadership and Operations. She embodies our commitment to kuleana and humble service, and as a local mother, she has an intimate understanding of the needs facing our community. We are grateful and excited to welcome her to the team.

Morea Mendoza, PBC's new director

Morea brings a wealth of organizational experience and a heart for supporting mothers and babies. We are excited for the years to come under her compassionate guidance.

BIRTH Story & Purpose

OUR MISSION

We are a community-based professional collective growing a network of service providers and island families dedicated to education, support, and advocacy for birth & wellness choices across Hawai'i.

OUR BIRTH STORY

Born in 2016, PBC is a non-profit organization that was founded by a group of community advocates and birth workers who recognized the need for enhanced support during the crucial life events of pregnancy, birth, and postpartum. What began as a grassroots initiative has evolved into a thriving community-centered movement with numerous robust programs.

OUR PURPOSE

PBC is building a haven for women, a hale pe'a or pu'u honua, akin to a red tent. This serves as a refuge for mothers and babies to discover community and a secure space to weather the storms, whether personal or global.

OUR GUIDING STARS

Accountability: We strive to be accountable to our community, our professionals, and our ancestors and children, and we ask our community professionals for accountability.

Generational Healing: We recognize the pain associated with historical traumas to women and indigenous people and we strive to be a force of healing.

Health: We strive for the health of the people, 'āina, mothers, babies, systems, and community.

Integrity: In all things we do, we act with honesty and principled intention.

Ha'aha'a: We commit to humility in our actions and words.

Protection: We strive to provide sanctuary for mothers, birth professionals, and each other.

MEET the PBC Wāhine

Before the August 2023 fires struck our community, PBC operated with a shoestring budget, two part-time contractors, and an active and involved Board of Directors.

Since the fires, we've grown to meet the immense needs of our community. We now have three full-time directors and seven contractors to run various

PBC Community Impact

Maui Wildfire Response

With eight years of relationship-building and a strong reputation in the community, Pacific Birth Collective found itself facing an unprecedented challenge: responding to the devastating fires that engulfed Lāhainā town in Maui.

From day one, PBC organized transportation via boats and jet skis when road access to Lāhainā was closed. Essential mother-baby supplies were transported, and assistance was provided to emergency medical personnel to reach affected areas. PBC escorted health professionals and midwives to West Maui, ensuring immediate medical assistance for families. After addressing immediate needs, PBC collaborated with local response teams, establishing the Maui Medics and Healers Hui at Honokowai Park to provide ongoing services.

DONATION & DISTRIBUTION HUBS

In the immediate aftermath of the fires, PBC swiftly established and maintained two active service hubs in Ha'ikū and Honokowai-Napili. These hubs served as coordination centers for the collection and distribution of essential pregnancy and postpartum items, while also offering healing services and holistic medicine to affected families.

OUR IMPACT

3000

3,000 families and counting provided with essential supplies and wellness care.

100

100 displaced families received direct aid in the form of $500 grants.

500

Over 500 volunteers contributed to support families in need.

288

288 Ergo carriers were donated for families affected by the Lāhainā fires.

HONOKOWAI-NAPILL HEALING HUI

Along with distribution efforts, the powerful work of the practitioners at Healing Hui served displaced and affected families with mental and health support. Under Costco tents at a central beach park on the Westside, a dedicated and rotating group of healers offered services like lomilomi, chiropractic, lā'au lapa'au, prenatal care, postpartum and breastfeeding support, acupuncture and more. PBC also facilitated the distribution of over 1000 native plants to restore Lahaina. Honokowai Park closed its services in December 2023.

HA'IKŪ DISTRIBUTION CENTER

Right before the fires, PBC serendipitously opened its new location at the Aloha 'Āina Center in Ha'ikū. From the day after the fires, our distribution center began collecting, sorting, and delivering care packages containing diapers, wipes, bottles, formula, postpartum supplies, and other essentials to displaced and impacted families. The dedicated PBC volunteer network delivered supplies directly to families all over the island, including shelters, campsites, and hubs. This center continues to support families in need.

DIRECT SUPPORT FOR DISPLACED FAMILIES

This initiative provided direct financial assistance, offering $500 grants to 100 displaced families facing pregnancy or postpartum challenges. Recipients of these grants endured significant losses, including homes, cars, businesses, and family members. Some fled the fires with only their children, while others sought refuge in the ocean with their babies to escape the flames. One single mother spent two nights stranded in her car with her six-month-old baby and no supplies. This grant aims to help them rebuild their lives again.

MOBILE CARE UNIT

After the fires, PBC acquired a mobile clinic initially used for supplies distribution with the goal of providing prenatal and postpartum clinics alongside the delivery of essentials. While the details of the full program were set up to launch in 2024, we used the van to distribute toys island-wide to increase community awareness of PBC and showcase our future services.

Holiday Toy Distribution

3300

3,300 toys were distributed to families affected by the fires or in need.

We distributed toys to Maui keiki in Lāhainā, Kahului, and Hāna, with Nā 'Aikāne o Maui Cultural Center providing space at the Ka'anapali hub. Additionally, we distributed toys and postpartum supplies at events at Maui Botanical Gardens dedicated to fire victims. We distributed toys during the Hāna Community Winter Show to most children living in Hāna .

NURTURING WĀHINE FUND PARTNERSHIP

In collaboration with Nurturing Wāhine Fund, the Honolulu Seahawkers, and Kicks4Kids, PBC distributed brand-new Nike shoes to over 100 displaced families. This joyful event at our Ha'ikū center included a meet-and-greet with Blitz, the Seahawks Mascot, where all families left with fresh new kicks.

FAMILY2FAMILY PARTNERSHIP

In collaboration with Partnering with Family2Family, PBC created custom gift packages for 10 displaced families with multiple children during the holiday season. Children had the opportunity to request specific items and express their interests.

ADVOCACY

Currently, traditional midwifery is not legally recognized in Hawaii, impacting birth sovereignty and presenting a feminist and human rights issue. In 2023, our Director of Advocacy, Ki'i Kaho'ohanohano, presented a report on human rights violations at the United Nations to advocate for the recognition of traditional midwifery. The goal is an exemption from licensing requirements for Traditional Midwives in accordance with the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People (UNDRIP) and the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR).

HEALING CENTER

PBC opened the Healing Center in the summer of 2023, fulfilling a long-standing dream to establish a physical location for our programs. In the months following the fires, the Healing Center transformed into a haven for healing families, providing access to healing services and community support.

PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY

In 2023, PBC's island-wide online directory of professionals grew to 117 members, marking a 26% increase. This program allows the Hawai'i community to discover and connect with skilled practitioners in Hawai'i for various pregnancy and postpartum needs. Our directory has become a valuable resource, ensuring access to trustworthy professionals.
